

By section 13 of the act of 1870, c. 161, the county commissioners of Howard and Montgomery counties are authorized to subscribe to the capital stock of the Saint James and Ellicott city turnpike company. See public local laws, Article XIII, Howard county, ante p. 346.

DIVISION LINE BETWEEN PRINCE GEORGE'S AND MONTGOMERY COUNTIES.

1870, c. 471 repeals section 4 of 1868, c. 466 [Sup. 1868, p. 347] and re-enacts the same to read as follows.

The sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and the same shall be under the direction of the governor for the purpose hereof, and the comptroller shall, under the order of the governor, draw his warrant on the treasurer for the said sum, in full for all accounts and expenses incurred in execution of said act.

WILD FOWL.

1870, c. 12 adds the following:

110. No person shall trap, shoot or in any manner catch, kill, maim or wound any partridge in Montgomery county, between the first day of December and the first day of October, nor any woodcock between the first day of January and the tenth day of June, nor any pheasants between the first day of February and the first day of September in each year.

1870, c. 12, s. 1.
When unlawful to kill partridges, pheasants, &c.

111. Any person violating the preceding section shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every offence to the county commissioners of said county; one-half for the use of the public schools in said county, and one-half for the benefit of the informer, said fine to be recovered before a justice of the peace of said county.

Ibid s. 2.
Penalty.

Approved and in force February 19, 1870.
